

ORGANIZE.
LEAD.
RUN FOR LOCAL OFFICE.
YOU CAN DO IT.

WE CAN SHOW YOU HOW.

The Creative America Project is a national nonprofit, nonpartisan effort to inspire and train creative professionals to lead in the public sector – including running for local office.

Attend our workshop on Friday, “The Politics of Creativity – A Call to Service,” and hear the case for creativity as a national value and the reasons why we need YOU to consider leading in the civic arena.

We offer BASIC TRAINING. One and two-day training programs on how to translate your skills and accomplishments into winning grassroots organizing and local election campaigns.

We do PRESENTATIONS and KEY NOTES on “The Politics of Creativity – A Call to Service,” “American Creativity At Risk” and “Imagining a Creative America Town Meeting.”

Our BOOK, “Stand Up for Creativity! Why Creative Professionals* and People Who Love Creativity* Should Run for Local Office (*this means you)” is almost ready. We’ll send you order info if you email us at tom@creativeamerica.us.

WE WANT TO TRAIN
YOU !

Tom Tresser, Lead Organizer
312-804-3230
tom@tresser.com

The 100K Project
www.100kproject.us
[updated for 2025]

CREATE. ACT. VOTE. RUN.

18th Annual
MIDWEST ARTS CONFERENCE
September 14-17, 2005

creative
AMERICA.us

“The Politics of Creativity”

September, 16 2005
Tom Tresser

Artists + creative professionals can offer their:

1. creative skills & resourcefulness
2. tolerance & ability to be empathetic
3. ability to build ensembles
4. ability to challenge old assumptions
5. passion, compassion and optimism
6. pursuit of truth & authenticity